

Vicki Israel

Volunteer Liaison

Vicki is an experienced administrator, manager and IT professional. Her strengths include programming, setting up systems and processes, graphic design and people management.

She started her career as a Computer Programmer with British Motor Leyland, then undertook other IT roles with finance company Associated Securities and publisher Prentice Hall.

From 1991 Vicki ran the office at Willoughby Girls High School, organising and supervising nine staff. Then from 1995 until 2008 she was the Office Administrator for Mrs. Fields Cookies, creating office systems and organising the smooth running of a complex business. She also looked after all accounting, managed the website and did all in-house graphics.

Vicki is passionate about social justice and since 2000 she has volunteered for "Courage to Care", as well as supporting and working within other Jewish social justice organisations. She was on the C2C Steering Committee and then Management Committee, holding the position of Vice-Chair for two years. "It is a privilege to work with the dedicated volunteers who give freely of their time. I believe that Courage to Care is a very special organisation and I passionately believe in all it stands for."
