

David Taylor

David was born in London and arrived in Australia in 1961. Married to Rosie, they have 2 children and 4 grandchildren. David brings to the Board a background in Law having graduated with a BA, LLB (Hons) and an LLM that he gained in London. David practised as a Solicitor for 40 years, 20 years as a partner at Mallesons Stephen Jaques, one of the Big Six law firms in Australia.

In his personal life, David has been an active member of B'nai B'rith for many years, he and Rosie being members of the Syd Einfeld Unit for over 20 years. He was the Secretary for BBANZ for 4 years and has served as one of the Trustees of the B'nai B'rith Foundation since 2014. David has also been active in the Maccabi Triathlon Club having held the positions of both Secretary and President.

David has a strong commitment to Courage to Care and the work we do. As many of us who are children of Holocaust survivors, David's wife Rosie would not be here were it not for people who hid her father (with several others) on a farm in the countryside outside Krakow. Her mother was in Auschwitz and she and Rosie's father were the only members of their families that survived the Holocaust.
